

How football reflects Islamic identity, citizenship, and affiliation

Date: 23 June 2026 (Tuesday)

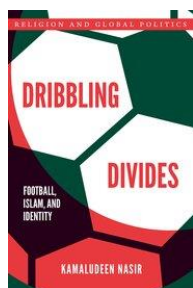

Time: 6:00 pm (GMT + 8)

Speaker: Professor Kamaludeen Nasir is Professor of Comparative and Global Sociology at the School of Social Sciences, NTU. He is the author of eight books, including Representing Islam: Hip-Hop of the September 11 Generation and Globalized Muslim Youth in the Asia Pacific: Popular Culture in Singapore and Sydney.

Moderator: Mr. Hamza Saghir Aslam, PhD student in Sports and Health Sciences, Hong Kong Baptist University (HKBU).

Participants: All are welcome

Organiser: Graduate Student Club in School of Social Sciences, Nanyang Technological University (NTU).

SOCIAL SCIENCES
NANYANG TECHNOLOGICAL UNIVERSITY

<https://bit.ly/dribblingdivides>

